Markel Group – A Strategic Partner

Markel Group is GoodHaven's minority partner and anchor investor

MARKEL GROUP

Market Capitalization:
$19.8 billion

Net Premiums Written:
$8.4 billion

Invested Assets:
$30.9 billion

US Surplus Lines by NPW:
#3 player

- "When it went public in 1986, it was an obscure specialty insurer with a market value of about $40 million. The Markel family, which founded the firm in 1930, hired Gayner to help them replicate Berkshire Hathaway's business model...By the end of 2019, its total assets had ballooned to $37.4 billion. Markel's market value has grown to about $14 billion"
- Richer, Wiser, Happier by William Green
- "So much of the question around Berkshire over the past 20 years is: Why hasn't anyone been able to copy what they did? The one company that has come closest, I think-no one will ever be able to do exactly what Buffett did-but the company that has come the closest culturally, and has the performance to back it up, is Markel, a large insurance company that uses the proceeds of that insurance to buy good businesses that its going to hold forever-both equities and businesses as a whole, just like Berkshire."
- Author Morgan Housel in Barron's August 3rd, 2023
- Markel materially added to their assets managed by GoodHaven and fully supported GoodHaven's reorganization which appointed Larry Pitkowsky as the sole managing partner and portfolio manager of GoodHaven Capital and sole portfolio manager of The GoodHaven Fund.

GoodHaven has a track record of delivering attractive returns through a repeatable investment process and investing in quality businesses.

Concentrated Portfolio

Focus in the highest conviction ideas with a private equity investment holding period, generally greater than 2-3 years.

Undervalued Businesses

Focus on owning high quality companies that are trading at significant discounts to intrinsic value, with a bias towards businesses with growth tailwinds and competitive advantages.

Fundamental Research

Deep research focus in each portfolio company and the industry with an owner's mentality approach.

Opportunistic

Opportunistically invest during periods of market dislocation.

Ownership Alignment

Portfolio manager has the majority of his net worth in the GoodHaven Fund and products.

- Concentrated holdings
- Above market growth
- Below market valuation

		GoodHaven Fund	S&P 500 Index
Concentration	# of Positions	23	503
Growth Rate	5 Yr EPS Growth Rate (2019 to 2024E)	18.0%	15.3%
Attractive Valuation	2024 P/E Ratio	15.5x	21.6x

Situation Analysis

- Variant perceptions on the business and industry
- Behavioral factors such as short term investor base, industry bias or recency bias
- Technical factors such as forced selling, liquidations, spin-offs and other
- Valuation analysis
- Track record of capital allocation
- Level of insider ownership

Valuation

- Assessing the level of discount to a range of possibilities of intrinsic value
- Focus on normalized free cash flow generation, comparable transactions, and strategic value
- Is this a high quality business? Duration of the company's competitive advantages?
- Predictable and recurring revenue and cash flows
- General aversion to cyclical business models unless at an inflection point and purchased at a significant discount

Investment Decision

- Look at each investment holistically with existing positions in the portfolio
- Why will our variant perceptions be right? What will be the range of expected returns?
- What are some scenarios where we could be wrong, what would need to occur?
- Only a select few opportunities will qualify as a core position
- Portfolio sales of great businesses will be less frequent unless replaced with a more attractive opportunity

“Never Let a Crisis Go To Waste” – Winston Churchill

“Its recent strength—including a return in the first half of 2023—has driven it to top 10% returns in its Morningstar peer group over the past three years.

Bottom line: GoodHaven is living up to its early promise. Funds are beginning to trickle back in, though it’s down dramatically from its peak. It would be wise for investors interested in quality-at-a-good-price to add GoodHaven to their due diligence list.”

- by David Snowball of Mutual Fund Observer July 2023 (full article)

- In December 2019, Larry Pitkowsky become majority controlling partner and sole portfolio manager.
- We had strayed from our long history of primarily focusing on “good businesses” and true special situations – this hurt, the stuff “in the middle” kills you.
- Value investing is consistent with owning quality companies – value and growth are connected not distinct.
- The key is having a margin of safety not just owning the statistically cheapest securities.
- The 2020 market turmoil presented an opportunity to accelerate a process recently underway to upgrade the portfolio – and we did.

Mutual fund investing involves risk. Principal loss is possible. The Fund is non-diversified, meaning it may concentrate its assets in fewer individual holdings than a diversified fund. Therefore, the Fund is more exposed to individual stock volatility than a diversified fund. The Fund invests in midcap and smaller capitalization companies, which involve additional risks such as limited liquidity and greater volatility. The Fund may invest in foreign and emerging market securities which involve political, economic and currency risks, greater volatility and differences in accounting methods. The Fund may invest in REIT's, which are subject to additional risks associated with direct ownership of real property including decline in value, economic conditions, operating expenses, and property taxes. Investments in debt securities typically decrease in value when interest rates rise. This risk is usually greater for longer-term debt securities. Investment in lower-rated, non-rated and distressed securities presents a greater risk of loss to principal and interest than higher-rated securities.

Holdings are subject to change at any time, and are not a recommendation to buy or sell any security.

The GoodHaven Fund is distributed by Quasar Distributors, LLC.

Per Morningstar (as of 03/31/2024 in the Midcap value category), the GoodHaven Fund was ranked in the top 2% for 1YR (vs 399 funds), top 1% for 3YR (vs 380 funds), top 3% for 5YR (vs. 363 funds), and top 92% for 10YR (vs. 281 funds). Morningstar Rankings represent a fund's total-return percentile rank relative to all funds that have the same Morningstar Category. The highest percentile rank is 1 and the lowest is 100. It is based on Morningstar total return, which includes both income and capital gains or losses and is not adjusted for sales charges or redemption fees. Past performance does not guarantee future results.

These weightings do not necessarily reflect current recommendations and are not selected based on profitability. It should not be assumed that any recommendations made in the future will be profitable or will equal the performance made on recommendations included in this list. Past performance is not necessarily a guide to future performance. Investment values can fall as well as rise in value.

The securities discussed do not represent an account's entire portfolio and in aggregate may represent only a small percentage of the overall portfolio. A complete list of all securities recommended for the immediately preceding year is available upon request.

Portfolio Overview metrics are calculated using market prices as of 03/31/2024.

1. The 5 year growth rate calculation for the holdings in the GoodHaven Fund is defined as the weighted average growth rate of the five years from 2019 year end to estimated 2024 earnings per share ("EPS") based off of consensus estimates. The 5 year average EPS growth rate of the S&P 500 are also calculated off of the weighted average growth rate of the constituents in the index.
2. Forward Price to Earnings ratio is calculated off of the stock's current price divided by the estimated earnings per share in the period. The GoodHaven portfolio and S&P 500 index forward P/E is calculated using weighted average forward P/E ratios.

Sum-of-the-parts is defined as the process of aggregating the valuations of individual businesses of a company as if it were individual entities that were to spun off or sold to a different company.

Comparable analysis is defined as a valuation process of using comparable valuation multiples and metrics of similar companies in the same industry.

Discounted free cash flow or DCF is defined as a valuation method to calculate a company's intrinsic value by projecting the present value of its future cash flows.

Return on invested capital is defined as a metric to measure the efficiency of a company's returns on its invested capital. It is generally defined as the ratio between the after tax operating profits of a firm divided by the amount of invested capital.

Return on equity or ROE is defined as net income divided by shareholder's equity.

Return on tangible common equity or ROTCE is defined as net income divided by tangible shareholder's equity (intangible assets including goodwill subtracted from shareholders equity).

Active share is measure of the percentage of stock holdings in a manager's portfolio that differs from the benchmark index.
